Keep up With The Van of Progress

The day of "jack at all trades and good for nothing" has passed. This is an age of specialists. We have kept up with the van of progress and when you bring work to our shop we have a specialist to turn over to you. The specialist at the head of each department takes a keen delight in turning you out a job of work that meets your demands, that will please you and that will last. We build wagons to order and repair buggies and autos, do horseshoeing and a general line of blacksmithing.
